

INAUGURAL SYMPOSIUM
Divorcing and Separating Families:
Transforming Crisis Into Opportunities
October 27 and 26, 2016

5 Reasons Why YOU Should Attend

Esteemed Presenters

Hear from a lineup of experts: Hon. Vanessa Aufiero da Rocha, Hon. Jane Pearl, Hon. A. Gail Prudenti, Hon. Jeffrey Sunshine, and many more widely respected professionals in the legal field. You will also hear from Robert E. Emery, PhD and Dr. Monica Michell, professionals in the mental health field, and many others. Come ask questions and be inspired!

Learn Something New

Acquire knowledge and new ideas to enhance your work. The Symposium will focus on the effect of social media on divorce and separation, the value of parenting plans and cutting edge approaches for families experiencing transitions through divorce and separation. CLE and CE credits are expected.

Engage with Like-Minded Attendees

Connect with colleagues engaging in the same field of work. Have fun talking and sharing ideas in the wonderful atmosphere at the NYC Bar Association. Go home invigorated and motivated from what you have learned.

Experience the Magic of Rejuvenation during the morning session and breaks

Take a few moments to release stress and anxiety through breathing under the guidance of Romona Mukherjee. Learn techniques to help increase your clarity and sense of empowerment. Bring nourishment to your body, mind, heart and spirit.

Treat Yourself to Our Kickoff Festivities

Join the crowd for an exciting evening on Wednesday, October 26, 2016 at Ariel West in Manhattan from 6:00 pm to 8:30 pm. A panel of professionals will share insights from their personal experiences as the children of divorce. They will discuss the impact of their parents' divorces on their professional practices. View a clip from the movie, "Split," and listen as producer Ellen Bruno speaks about her experience creating it. Socialize while you sip wine and soda, and eat delicious treats. Last, but not least, hear Rachel Hundert sing songs that are sure to get a laugh out of you!
