About Gotham Comedy Club. Founded in 1996 by native New Yorker Chris Mazzilli, Gotham Comedy Club brings elite comics including Dave Chapelle, Lewis Black and Colin Quinn (to name a few) to the stage, and also provides a showcase for up-and-coming talent. The club's upscale theater environment has served as a backdrop for many TV shows and films including Jerry Seinfeld's 2002 Miramax film "Comedian" and Larry David's pilot of "Curb Your Enthusiasm."

About Gotham Comedy Foundation. Gotham Comedy Foundation is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to bring humor to those who need it, one laugh at a time. A proponent of the healing power of laughter, Gotham Comedy Foundation provides "humor therapy" in NYC hospitals, hospices, senior centers, and social agencies.
