FamilyKind was founded in 2012 by attorneys, mental health providers, and other professionals committed to addressing the absence of affordable, high-quality professional services for low- to middle-income couples separating or divorcing, with a focus on helping parents center the needs of their children.

FamilyKind's services include divorce and co-parenting mediation, parenting coordination, and other support programs for children and adults, including for adult children of divorce, and for matrimonial professionals. All services are provided on a sliding fee scale and are now offered virtually. While FamilyKind traditionally serves couples and families in the greater New York area, programs now reach a truly global audience.

Virtual Symposium: GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES IN FAMILY LAW

Expert voices from around the world, representing diverse perspectives and specialties, will discuss their regions' adaptations to support families through divorce and separation during the COVID-19 pandemic and beyond (CLEs are pending and contact hours for social workers will be offered).

Through the event, FamilyKind will raise critical funds to provide high-quality services to parents and families regardless of ability to pay. This year FamilyKind will honor Justice Jacqueline Silberman as well as Philip Katz, Esq., whose exemplary work organizing the Assigned Counsel Panel of the NY County Family Court during the COVID-19 pandemic helped countless NYC families.

Event Sponsorship offers visibility for your brand and organization among an esteemed community of lawyers, mediators, judges, mental health providers, family science professionals, financial services professionals, and others.
